All You Have to Do is Start

It seems so easy
Just walk toward the light
Illuminate the darkness
And light-up the night

But it ain't so simple
As the days they go on by
You don't quite get there
And you tire of the try

The journey well it seems Like it may end
You keep on keeping on Even though it's all pretend

And then you realize
How pointless is the fight
You think about it all
And if you might be right

But then you see
What could be
If you open your mind
And then you see
What could be
If you let yourself find...

Your heart will guide you
Where you need to go right now
And you already know
Even if you don't know how
Just open up your eyes
And open up your heart Just let it all come in
All you have to do is start

Every day it is a slog
To sunset and beyond
The demands that pull you
And tug upon your bonds

It's like it's all a test
Designed for you to fail
Sometimes you give-up
And find somewhere else to sail

I'm Crazy for You

I hear you say my name
And I always feel the same
Well it makes me smile wide
Just to know you're by my side

Sometimes it's been tough
But we've always had enough
And as long as I've got you
I know I'll always make it through Oh, I'll always make it through...

I'm crazy for you
I'm crazy for you
'Cause you've made me, the best I can be
I'm crazy for you
I'm crazy for you
'Cause you're the best thing, to happen to me
Oh I'm crazy, crazy for you
I'm crazy for you

Whenever you're not there
It's almost more than I can bear
'Cause when I'm away from you
It always makes me know it's true
Oh, I know that it's true

Oh I'm crazy for you
I'm crazy for you
Oh I'm crazy for you

I've Been Thinking About You

Been thinking about you
Been thinking about the crazy way you treated me
The intensity fades
But the memories remain
And the pain lingers on
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about you

Been thinking about you
Been thinking 'bout picking up the phone and calling you
But I don't believe you've changed And nothing else would
So it's time to move on
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about you

All this thinking is confusing me
But there is one thing I know

I wanna be free of you
I wanna be free of everything you did to me
I wanna be free of you
I wanna be free of that hold you have on me
I wanna be free

Been thinking about you
Been thinking about all the things that could and should have been But it's not the way it was
And it's never gonna be
So it's time to move on
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about you

Been thinking about you

Time to Say Goodbye

I went along with you
As you led me on Well I was dumb enough
To fall for that con

You made your promises
You hoped to be heard
And now we both know
I fell for every word

Well here we go but it ain't from the start
I hope you're listening to me sweetheart

You tried everything you know Where'd you think that this would all go?

Don't even think about asking me why

You know I ain't even gonna try
It's time to say goodbye

Could I not learn
As you did your thing?
How'd you hide it so well
All those little flings?

You tell me you want to make it work
But I know
That there's no hope

It ain't gonna work
And that much I know
Let me say it straight
It's time for you to go Goodbye...

I'll Take the High Road (and You Take the Low)

I look at you and see some kind of fool
You run around thinking you're so cool

You smile at everyone that you meet
You got 'em bowing right at your feet
But for me you're nowhere to be found

You look at me and see something to take You slither up like some kind of snake
You take everything that you can
And run away like you've got a plan Well now you're gone and you leave me to drown

I'll take the high road
And you take the low
'Cause unlike you
I got nothing to show
We'll meet on the far side
And see how it goes
But I took the high road
And you took the low
Oh, I took the high road
And you took the low

I look at us and I can see right through
Our relationship don't mean much to you
Well it does when we are face-to-face
You put everything right in its place
And there it stays 'til you turn around

I wish I'd seen you for what you are Before it all went quite this far
So tell me does it feel so right
When you go to sleep at night

Oh I took the high road

Nothing's Wrong, Nothing's Right

You always ask me
And you wonder why
You think what I have to say is just a little lie

You wanna help me
And I want you to
If I knew a way it's what I'd have you do

And I know I always say I'm doing fine
Even when it must be clear I've crossed a line

Well nothing's wrong, but nothing's right
It's never black and white
No nothing's wrong, and nothing's
I must be losing sight
Of the things I know
And where I must go
'Cause nothing's wrong...
And nothing
Nothing is right

I thought I knew
How life would go
But there's not a way I've found to make it flow

There's no more time

And I have no place
What I need the most right now is a little space

No nothing
Nothing is right

A Lie is a Lie

I could have guessed
That you'd trash talk me
You're not the kind that I thought you would be

But there's a line
And you crossed right by
I gotta ask you
What you thought and why

I don't deserve the things that you have said
And I don't get the stuff inside your head, well...

Maybe things did not go quite as they should Say whatever you want to make you feel good, but
In the end you did not even try, and...
A lie is a lie

What did you think
That you'd get away with?
I'd call you out
But you'd plead the fifth

I gotta ask you
Can you sleep at night?
I'm sure you do
'Cause you are always right

I would ask you

What happened to us
But I don't care
It ain't worth the fuss
But if you answered
That you'd want me to stay
I got news for you
There ain't no way

I'm Listening to Me

It feels like I've known you
You've been around for years
We've never really met But you sure have caused some tears

It comes right out of the blue
And goes right into my ears
You say all of this crazy stuff
That I do not want to hear

But you gotta know I've almost had enough
'Cause listening to you has gotten far, far too tough

Well, this is where it ends
Between you and me
I just cannot pretend
To see what I do not see
It's time to make it end
I just can't let it be
I'm not listening to you anymore...
I'm listening to me

Every time I hear your voice
It echoes inside my head
The doubts begin to build
Even as I might see red

This habit is no good
And it never serves me well
How it got to be this way

I surely could not tell

You need to know that there is no way
You need to go 'cause you simply cannot stay

Crossroad

My life up to now
It's been real good
I can't complain
Or I do not think I should

Don't know what it is Things don't feel right
That feeling you get
When cannot find the light

But on this day
I look around
I can't see a soul
And I cannot hear a sound

I'm at a crossroad
I don't know which way to go now
The decisions I have to make
Oh they make my heart ache

I'm at a crossroad
I should pick but I don't know how
The decisions I have to make
Oh they make my heart ache

I'm at a crossroad
And of course I do know
I'll have to find my way...

Credits and Thanks

Produced, arranged and programmed by Wesley King. Vocals and acoustic guitar performed by Bryant Kentrow. Drums on I've Been Thinking About You performed by Nicholas Dahl.

This album is dedicated to the memory of my mother, Linda, who always told me I had a beautiful voice even when I didn't believe her (and I still don't). To Rob, for supporting every crazy idea I ever had (including this one), and never doubting me at any point along the way (even when I did, at every step). And to Pa and Gorge for being the family I wish I'd had all along.

Special thanks to Dom Toulon for the coaching and support, and for being a friend. To Arlin Godwin for the creative inspiration and advice. To Nick Dahl for all the creative commiseration, and telling me to just get over it and make a country record already. And a tip of the hat to all the people whose bad behavior motivated me to write many of the songs on this album. At least something good came from all the pain.
